* P.S. Huge thanks to the Coffee Morning ladies who raised £1,462 for the Hall in 2015!! ****

It should come to you as no surprise that the Waldringfield Village Hall Winter Talks are continuing in the New Year and that they take place at 7.30pm on the first Thursday of the month, usually in the Kennedy Room. The entrance fee remains at £3 and covers your half-time tea or coffee and biscuits.

On Thursday January 7th Professor Mark Bailey, will tell us what he knows about 'The Black Death in Suffolk and Waldringfield'. A relatively new resident of Waldringfield, he is Professor of Later Medieval History at UEA. Currently he is also High Master of St Paul's School, London. An old boy of Ipswich School, he may be known to many of you as a Suffolk County cricketer and a past member of the English Rugby Union squad. Some CV!

Roy Tricker, has a reputation not only for his expertise on all matters relating to Suffolk Churches but also his manner of delivery which never fails to amuse. On Thursday February 4th he returns to the WVH Winter Talk scene with 'One hundred not out' ('and', he says, 'it won't be about cricket'.)

We hope to see you there. There's no better value for money! Gareth Thomas

* EASTERN ANGLES EARLY BIRD OFFER ****

Eastern Angles is returning to the Village Hall on Thursday 17th March at 7.30 pm with their new production 'Somewhere in England' by Polly Wiseman

Eastern Angles presents a fascinating and moving new theatre production telling the wartime story of the arrival of thousands of American GIs from the 8th US Army Air Force. Nylons, Hershey bars and jitterbugging to Swing Bands in the local village hall all feature, but there was another side to this shared history – a tale of segregation and of rural communities turned upside down. Kids being forced to grow up before their time, friendships forged and then blown apart and outsiders learning to live amongst the locals.

Discover this important story of how the Eastern region was physically and socially affected by the arrival of our friends from across the pond.

Tickets are available from Colin and Betsy Reid, Dormers, Cliff Rd at a cost of £7.00 (for early birds up to Monday 29th February inclusive) and thereafter at £8.00 each.
