

Waldringfield Fairway Committee

Report to Annual Parish Meeting

- * Convey apologies on behalf of Chair Person, Steve Lomas, that he is not able to attend.
- >
- > * Welcomed Mark Barton as the new owner of Waldringfield Boat Yard onto the committee and thank you to Andrew Brown for his services to WFC over many years.
- >
- > * The Accounts for the WFC Financial Year ending 30th September have been independently examined by Peter Starling and found to satisfactory and signed off. There was a small loss - but this was down to a one off payment to a solicitor for services. Continue to remain financially in good shape.
- >
- > * There is good compliance in both payment for moorings and licensing of dinghies on the beach.
- >
- > * No increase in charges for the 2013 season.
- >
- > * The Crown Estate has indicated that it is happy with how the lease is administered by Trustees and Committee Members of Waldringfield Fairway Committee
- >
- > * John Smith as Harbourmaster to WFC has continued to maintain a very visible presence throughout the year.
- >
- > * Mooring Count is 220, as checked by yourself, Harbourmaster John Smith and Treasurer/Secretary Paul Beaumont at the end of last season.
- >
- > * Trinity House will be having its Annual Inspection of Navigation Marks in conjunction with WFC Harbourmaster John Smith on 22nd April.
- >
- > * WFC will be holding its Annual General Meeting that is open to the public on 18th April.
